DEDICATION AND APPRECIATION

I dedicate this work to my three children,
Jack Anthony Foust, William Lee Foust and Virginia Ann Foust McDermott.

My oldest son, Jack A. Foust, age 17 in 1940, requested that I write a record of his kindred. After many years of research, the Foust, Grubb, (Yates) Yeatts, Tucker and Short families were found to be his people.

My deepest appreciation goes to those who have furnished information and encouragement, without which this record would not have been compiled.

Mrs. Berkeley E. Foust, Mineral, Virginia

Mrs. Jesse Douglas Creter, Portsmouth, Virginia

Miss Helen M. Fischer, Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Clare Fischer, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Mary Lou (Foust) Emerson, Fairbanks, Alaska

Mrs. Mary Alice (Foust) Smith, Phoenix, Arizona

Mr. & Mrs. Jack Anthony Foust, Phoenix, Arizona

Mr. & Mrs. William Lee Foust, Alexandria, Virginia

Mrs. Virginia Ann McDermott, Flushing, New York

No further information found

Documentation for the Foust Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations of Foust to be Faust, Fouse (in Pittsylvania Co., Va.) Fouch, Fausten and Fauste. Bearers of the old, distinguished Foust name comprise a significant place in history. They include Johann Foust (d 1460) of Mentz, Germany, and many others. The Foust family in Virginia originated in the Rhine River area of West Germany.

D. Samuel Yates, born Jan. 22, 1776 is not placed as the son of Stephen Yates, Sr., & Lydia Parsons, although the chronological evidence points to the conclusion that Samuel Yates was indeed the son of Stephen Yates, Sr., b 1746 circa. Stephen Yates resided in the old Yates home, near Gretna, where he reared his family. Samuel Yates was buried at this home, died May 22, 183

The old Yates home (Yeatts) near Gretna, Virginia was built in the early 1700's. Samuel Yates was buried there on May 22, 1836, among many unmarked graves.

This old home of the Yates family has been awarded a marker and will be included in the National Register of Historic Places. It has been scheduled for restoration and is known as the Block House 1802-1806, Court Orders, so called for a ten-inch overhand on the second story which enabled the occupants to shoot down on attackers.
Indians, their town on the Staunton river, about ten miles from the Yeatts (Yates) home now called the Block House, Pittsylvania County.

Virginia Counties: Notes (1) There were eight original shires (or counties), all of which dated from 1634. There was also the "original county" of Northumberland (the Indian district Chickacoan), dating from 1648. From these nine "immigrant ancestors" there resulted (including the nine) 172 counties by Va. legislation. The eight shires and the number of counties derived from them were:

Accawmack	3	Henrico	11
Charles City	18	James City	3
Charles River	9	Warrosquyoake	3
Elizabeth City	7	Warwick River	2

Source: A Hornbook of Virginia History, by J. R. V. Daniel, Division Director.

Captain William Tucker and wife, Mary settled in Elizabeth City, Shire of Va., near the intersection of the James River and the Elizabeth River. Their descendants moved westward, on the south side of the James River.

The Tucker family multiplied in numbers. From Prince George and Amelia Counties, they spread into Brunswick, Nottoway and Lunenburg Counties, Virginia. William and Anne Tucker and their sons (and probably daughters) William, Jr., and Nelson Tucker settled in Pittsylvania Co., Virginia. Nelson Tucker is the forbear of Mary Elizabeth Tucker who married William Henry Short, (see hereafter).
